Learning Opportunity

Not all heroes wear capes, but we all share a common goal: to help the children communicate more effectively and confidently. Communication is at the heart of connection, learning, and growth. Today we'll explore practical tools, strategies, and techniques to support and enhance speech and language development. This will be an interactive and engaging session where we learn together and leave equipped to make a real difference!

Other series dates include:

- October 29, 2024 - What are the OT and the PT Asking my Child to Do?
- November 26, 2024 - Back to Basics with Behavior
- January 28, 2025 - Call out to all Support Superheroes
- March 25, 2025 - Mental Wellness in the Early Years
- April 29, 2025 - Building Executive Function and Resilience in Children Through Play
- May 27, 2025 - The OT Rocketship
