Program

Teaching Practices that Position Students Closer to Reading Excellence – Building Adolescent Readers”

With a focus on building reading lives that last, participants in this workshop will discuss the following:

- Strategies that enable students to move beyond surface-level comprehension and into deeper reading of difficult text
- Why teachers in all content areas should address reading motivation and recreational reading
- Understanding reading as a process, and how that helps improve student comprehension
- Understanding the importance of 2nd draft reading
- How writing deepens reading comprehension
