Learning Opportunity

This is the continuation of a practical learning session to support Kindergarten and Grade 1 teachers in the ongoing implementation of the new ELA curriculum to equip students for reading success. The focus will be on further skill development of key foundational literacy components by offering multi-sensory strategies for:

- phonological awareness - segmenting, blending, and manipulation of phonemes;
- phonics - decoding, spelling patterns;
- the acquisition of irregular words (that cannot be decoded)

Presenters

Dr. Deborah Karrah

Dr. Deborah Karrah is an experienced educator (Administrator and Learning Support Teacher) who is a Structured Literacy specialist and Certified Orton-Gillingham instructor. She provides school division professional learning sessions that focus on the foundational literacy skills of phonological awareness and phonics development. In her private practice, she offers reading as well as writing remediation for children who have dyslexia and dysgraphia. For the past three years, Dr. Karrah has also been collaborating with Harvard University in a research study on an innovative dyslexia screening technology developed by a multi-disciplinary team in Greece.

Registration Notes

This learning opportunity will be offered in-person and NOT recorded. We will be using ZOOM for those wishing to attend remotely.

We recommend attending Part I (October 25, 2022), unless you have prior knowledge of Science of Reading and Structured Literacy.
